

Amurely

Arif J. Krasniqi 9 February 1946 - 13 August 2010

"Traffic is the blood of the economic system of every country but also of Kosovo and as such is the main carrier of change and continuous development of the country. The blood circulation paths within this system are the rail, maritime, postal and air arteries.

STUDIES

In 1976, graduated from the Technical High School in Zagreb, Croatia in the field of road traffic.

In 1987, completed the first cycle of nine semester studies at the Faculty of Communication Sciences-Road Traffic Management, at the University of Zagreb in Croatia.

In 1988, in parallel at the same faculty, completed additional studies in Railway Communication.

In 2008, completed the second cycle of master's studies at the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering at the University of Prishtina-Communication Branch, with the topic "Use of terminals for the circulation of goods in Kosovo."

In 2009, completed a second cycle of master's degree studies at the Faculty of Pedagogy - Department of Pedagogy at the State University of Tetova in Tetovo, Macedonia, with the topic "The role of schools in educating students to improve behavior in traffic."

In 2010, at the Technical Faculty, Department of Machinery, at the University "St. Clement of Ohrid" in Bitola, Macedonia, gained approval of the doctoral dissertation topic titled "Modeling of mechanization processes in freight terminals in Kosovo and increasing efficiency in transport".

Premature death makes it impossible for him to defend his doctoral dissertation.

OUTSTANDING FOOTPRINT IN ALBANIAN EDUCATION, IN TECHNICAL SCIENCES AND TRAFFIC CULTURE

Multi-year lecturer (1970-1990) at the Prishtina driving school (SHAM).

Teacher of several professional subjects in the field of traffic, at the Technical High School "28 Nentori" in Pristina.

In 1996 he was one of the first initiators for the establishment of the road traffic degree within the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering at the University of Prishtina.

In 2001 founded Tempulli College as the first officially recognized private institution of higher education in Kosovo.

Professor Arif Krasniqi has made a well-deserved contribution to his professional and academic field through writings, magazines, debates, conferences and symposia. Among others, he was the author of several books for students published by Tempulli College: "Communication Law" December 2001, "Basics of Communication and Transport" May 2002, "Loading and Unloading Mechanisms" September 2003, "Infrastructure in Traffic "June 2004," Integral Multimodal Systems "February 2005," Traffic Rules and Safety "December 2006," Transport Technique "September 2007, etc.

